

CURRICULUM VITAE

Susanne Holmlund, M.Soc.Sc.

---

Ms. Susanne Holmlund started her career as a trainee at the National Archives of Finland/Provincial Archives of Vaasa, and then moved on to being head of records management and information services. In 2001 she moved on to the library sector. She is currently Information specialist at the Tritonia Academic Library and Hanken School of Economics in Vaasa, Finland. She is also a member of Tritonia's board of directors and coordinator of information services.

She has a master's degree in political science from Åbo Akademi University and a higher archival management degree from the National Archives of Finland.

Susanne Holmlund is involved in the teaching of information literacy skills and has also been working with plagiarism issues at Hanken School of Economics. She served as substitute for Finland's representative in EBLIDA's executive committee in 2012-2015.

Contact information

Email: susanne.holmlund@tritonias.fi