

Alicia Sellés Carot
Spain

Federación Española de Sociedades de Archivística, Biblioteconomía, Documentación y Museística - FESABID
(Spanish Federation of Archives, Libraries, Documentation and Museum Associations)

Alicia Sellés Carot (Castellón, 1977) has a Bachelor's degree in Documentation from the Polytechnic University of Valencia (UPV, 2002) and in Librarianship and Documentation from the University of Salamanca (1998). She has also a Masters in Contents and legal matters in Information Society (UPV, 2004).

She is the president of the COBDCV, (Official College of librarians and Information specialist of the Valencian Region (Spain) since 2013, but she has been on the Governing Board since 2011. The COBDCV is now focusing its activity and efforts in profession advocacy, visibility of the professionals and leadership.

Since 2015, She is in the EBLIDA EC (1st term) and recently, she has been elected President of the Federación Española de Sociedades de Archivística, Biblioteconomía, Documentación y Museística (Spanish Federation of Archivistic, Librarianship, Documentation and Museum Associations). In FESABID, she is working specifically on two committees, one about professional associations (cooperation, integration, sustainability, etc.) and the other related to professional positioning from the global perspective of information consumers.

She works at MASmedios, a Spanish company, developing technological projects for library and information systems and she is a lecturer at the Polytechnic University of Valencia and teaching collaborator in Universitat Oberta de Catalunya.