

KATRINA KUKAINE

Mag.geogr., spatial development planner, specialized in historic environment, works in the National library of Latvia as strategic development specialist, for a time as the Director of the Development department.

Before worked many years for the National Heritage Board, from 2014 till 2020 as the Deputy Head. Previous education in communication sciences, specially – media ethics.

Worked at the French Embassy in Latvia in Cultural and Education division, leaded the elaboration of the Library (médiathèque) in the French Institute in Riga (1999-2006). Member of the Baltic Sea States Monitoring group on Cultural Heritage protection (2007-2014), member of the international Steering group for elaboration of the nomination for UNESCO World Heritage list „Viking sites in Northern Europe”. Member of ICOMOS Latvia, Board member from 2014. Since October 2020 President of the Board. Author of several publications on cultural heritage and spatial planning.