

Council meeting 3 - 4 May 2002, The Hague, Netherlands
Celebrating ten years of EBLIDA!

Programme

The Hague Lobby (De Haagse obby)
 10th floor
 City Hall (Stadhuis)
 Spui 68
 The Hague, Netherlands

Friday, 3 May 2002

Chair: Britt-Marie Häggström, President EBLIDA

09.30 - 10.00	Registration and coffee
10.00 - 12.30	EBLIDA Council meeting (see separate agenda)
12.30 - 13.45	Buffet lunch
13.45 - 15.10	EBLIDA Council meeting (contd).
15.10 - 15.30	Tea break
15.30 - 16.00	Libraries got organised: EBLIDA and how it all began Speaker: Emanuella Giavarra
16.00 - 16.30	Move to Political Balcony in the City Hall (neighbouring building)
16.30 - 17.30	Reception at The Hague City Hall hosted by the Mayor of The Hague. Taste the first European edible book!

18.30	Option: meet at the City Hall to walk to the Peace Palace , home to the International Court of Justice
19.00	Meet at the gates of the Peace Palace for a guided tour
20.00	Dinner at the Peace Palace

Saturday, 4 May 2002

EBLIDA conference 10.00 - 13.00

Chair: Mogens Damm, Vice-President EBLIDA

10.00 - 11.00	New alliances, new partners: the politics of mergers Library associations merging: case study Germany Speaker: Klaus-Peter Böttger, Berufsverband Information Bibliothek Policy organisations merging, archives, libraries & museums: case study UK Speaker: Justin Frost, Archives Policy Advisor, Resource UK Questions and discussion
11.00 - 11.20	Coffee break
11.20 11.45	Reaching out: contrasting European models for developing virtual library services Library portals: the Dutch model Speaker: Jan-David Hanrath, Laurens/NBLC Library portals: the Danish model Speaker: Jens Thorhauge, Danish National Library Authority Questions and discussion
12.15 - 12.40	You can teach an old continent new tricks: e-government, a priority for eEurope, an information society for all Speaker: Johan Bodenkamp, e-government specialist, European Commission Questions and discussion
12.50	Close of conference
Saturday afternoon & Sunday	For walking tour options, see the registration form.